SATURDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 7.

LOST IN THE ARCTIC SEAS. - Captain Roach master of Messrs. C. A. Williams & Co's. whaling schooner Helen F., of New Loudon, wrecked in October, 1876, in the Arctic seas, has arrived in that city. He reports that the Helen F., was in winter quarters at Cumberland inlet when beset by the storm in which she was lest. A heavy gale sprang up, and the ice, in great masses crowding the versel, drove her out to sea.

Efforts made to work her back failed, and after two days of toil an attempt was made to reach either Hannibal's harbor or Brown's harbor. These efforts also failed, and the vessel was, as a last resort, beached on a small island. No lives were lost in the perilous operation, and the vessel was stripped and the provisions landed. This latter task was but just accomplished when the southwest wind started the crackling, grinding ice blocks in toward the isle, and they came on in great, resistless heaps, and, crowding and pushing up and over the schooner's side, buried her from sight, and left only her masthcads visible. Fu'l forty feet above her deeks and on all sides of her it lay in shining, transparent piles, imprisoning her as securly as though she were fastened in the bowels of the earth.

It was not until December 6 that her officers and crew could make their way to the station in Penne's Harbor, where were better shelter and a plentitude of provisions, and on that day they left the schooner. When Spring came she sank in three fathoms of water close by the land that all the Winter long had held her hard and fast. From the station at Pcane's flarbor the erew of the Helen fished with fair success until the 10th of July, when the Scotch brig Perseverance hove in sight and took them off. Oa the twelfth she put out to sea, and after a pleasant voyage of twenty eight days' duration she came into l'eterhead, Scotland. Thence her erew went to Liverpool by way of Aberdeen. From Liverpool Capt. Roach and his first mate came to New York.

ICE CREAM, SODA WATER, &c.

ICE CREAM.

My Ice Cresm Manufactory, one of the largest in Virginia, still continues to supply private customers, Sunday schools, excursions, picnics, fairs, festivals and associations, as well as the trade, with that SUPERIOR CREAM that has made a name in this community, and is known everywhere as BRENGLE'S ICE CREAM. I could easily reduce its price by lowering its quality, but good cream, of fresh, pure, wholesome ingredients, cannot be furnished at a less price than I serve it. Of course, I could "grade my cream by the price," but my cream would lose the good name that years of fair dealing have won for it. I ask that persons abroad ordering "Brengle's Cream" from third parties will assure themselves that the cream sent is certainly from my establishment. I warrant my cream, and do not wish that inferior cream, sent out as mine, may injure its reputation. It is my aim to furnish the BEST CREAM IN AMERICA, and my customers are satisfied that I do so.
